Notify Me - Searching on Job Location

Looking for a Train Crew job? Or maybe you don't care what you do – as long as it is in Arkansas? Union Pacific has job opportunities across the country and new openings daily. It's hard to keep it all straight, which is why we created Notify Me! Use this feature to be updated when an event, job category, department or location that interests you become available. You must have an account and be logged in on our site, www.UP.jobs, to use this feature. If you're not logged in and you click on the Notify Me button, you will be prompted to log in before saving your preferences.

To use Notify Me, follow these directions:

What will you build? www.UP.jobs
